Helpful Information

Return Policy

Due to the nature of the electronic designs and any included items, refunds will not be issued as the files cannot be returned once downloaded. The responsibility is the purchasers to validate the file dimension and type will be compatible with their machine brand and hoop size. Due to the various cutting machines on the market, we will provide only SVG cut files with our design packages. It will be the purchaser's responsibility to understand their machine compatibility and make any necessary conversions, tracings or upgrades in their software.

Step 7 :

You will see an order confirmation page with all of your shopping info including a receipt you can print and a link for the download. You can click on it and download immediately. You will also receive an emailed receipt.

Step 8 :

The link will download as a zipped file. You should see it in your downloads at the bottom left of your screen. You can tell it is zipped by the little zipper on the folder

*NOTE: If the download box disappears after it completes, just go to your start button on your screen and click on it for the search option in Windows. Type in the word “downloads” and it should show you the place on your computer where your downloads usually go. Click on it and you will see the zipped folder. If there are many things in your downloads, look for the date of the transaction which will be listed next to each item to make it easier to locate*

Step 9 :

When you double click on the zipped file you will see an option to Extract All Files at the top left of your screen. This will allow you to open the file from your downloads area and put it where you want on your computer. Click Extract all files and another window will open.

Step 10 :

Pick a destination on your computer where you will store the file. Make it somewhere you will be able to find it. You can browse to that location by clicking the browse button, then click extract. A good place would be in your Documents. It will take the zipped file and move it to the new location.

*NOTE: If you don't delete the files in your downloads, the original zipped file will still be there and you can always go back to it if you can't find the extracted file or maybe need the file later.*

Step 11 :

Once the file is extracted and in the final place on your computer it will look like a regular folder with no little zipper.

Step 12 :

Double click on the file folder and it will open to show several different folders inside. There may be Cut files if it is an applique design. There should be a design sheet that shows color changes and important information about the design. If extra sewing instructions are needed, they will be included. Of course the actual embroidery files will be in their own folder also. Other additional information sheets may be included also. Find the appropriate embroidery file type for your machine and you are ready to move it to your machine for stitch out.

We hope this helps you with your downloads and that you have fun using our designs.
